THREE-PIECE

Don't feel you need to invest in a new three-piece – the wonderful thing about men is you can mix neutral tones without having to worry about an exact match. A waistcoat is guaranteed to add a bit of finesse to your tailoring.

FASHION forecast

When it comes to British springtime, the one certainty is just how uncertain the weather is. One minute there's beautiful sunshine, the next a downpour. Outsmart those tricky, unpredictable days with a few transitional updates

TOP KNIT

When the spring sun's playing hide and seek, look to a lightweight knitted tank top or woolly waistcoat – a versatile essential for those in between-weather days. Layering a sleeveless knit over a striped shirt, crisp cotton T-shirt, fancy blouse or even a midi dress is a stylish wardrobe hero for women in midlife and beyond.

Tank top. £69, xs-l, Phase Eight. Shirt. £45, xs-xl, French Connection. Trousers. £49, 8-20; sandals. £85, 3-8, both John Lewis & Partners. Cap. £15, Next

SPLASH TIPS

What better way to dazzle in the drizzle than with a fabulous yellow top – it's sartorial sunshine. Everyone can wear yellow (yes, really); it's just about finding the right shade. Cooler hair and skin tones (no pink or red undertones) should opt for zingy neons and chartruese (yellow verging on green). The other end of the yellow spectrum is saffron, which looks gorgeous on warmer hair and skin tones. You can't not feel happy in yellow!

Blouse. £129, 8-16, 40mo. Trousers. £89, 4-18, Hush. Umbrella. £22, Totes
